SANCTUARY ON CAMELBACK MOUNTAIN HOSTS EXCLUSIVE CHEF'S TABLE EVENT TO BENEFIT WINGS TO FLY

Non-Profit Prepares Young Women to Soar in Life

PHOENIX -- "Iron Chef America" award-winner Beau MacMillan of Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain will present an exclusive chef's table dining event on Sept. 15 to benefit Wings to Fly, a national non-profit organization that promotes life-long self esteem in young women.

The fundraising event will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at Casa Montana, a luxurious private home at Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain. The 3,500-square-foot home features three wood-burning fireplaces, a billiard room, private pool and scenic patio offering one of the most breathtaking panoramic views on Camelback Mountain.

Executive Chef Beau MacMillan will personally prepare delicacies from the resort's signature restaurant, Elements. MacMillan's culinary talent has been featured on NBC-TV's "Today Show" and "Iron Chef America." He is the personal chef for Wayne Gretzky and has cooked for such personalities as President Bush and Britney Spears.

Founded by Renie Cavallari, chief inspiration officer, CEO and founder of Aspire, Wings to Fly hosts week-long educational camps for young women ages 10 to 17. Through interactive, inspiring activities, girls develop a better understanding of who they are as young women in today's society.

"We're expanding our presence nationally and seek community support to build a non-profit organization headquartered in Arizona that emphasizes self-worth and empowerment for young women allowing them to make responsible and healthy choices for their lives," said Cavallari.

The Wings to Fly chef's table dining event is being sponsored by Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain. One of the country's most lauded luxury resorts, Sanctuary is a striking boutique property located at 5700 E. McDonald Drive in Paradise Valley, Ariz. Under the direction of Westroc Hospitality, Sanctuary enjoys international acclaim for its contemporary design, and award-winning elements restaurant and Sanctuary Spa.

The cost to attend is $1,000 per person. All proceeds will benefit Wings to Fly. Limited seating is available and reservations are required by calling Jill Clark at 480-607-2375.
